Florence "Maggie" Morrison died Tuesday February 12, 2019 in her sleep at her home in Erie, Pennsylvania where she had been residing for several years. She was born May 5, 1949 in Allegheny Township, Pennsylvania, daughter of the late Edwin F. and Virginia (Clawson) Morrison. Maggie was a 1967 graduate of Kiski Area High School, attended Bob Jones University, graduated the Salvation Army College of Officer training in Suffern, NY, and attended Allegheny Community College in the 90's in pursuit of an RN degree. She was very spiritual with a big heart generating genuine concern for other people as her first priority. She was always willing to lend a helping hand. There were many hats she wore throughout her life as; Salvation Army Officer, Certified Nursing Assistant, carrier for pharmaceutical drugs, ordained minister, and her most compassionate as an individual caregiver for several elderly individuals. During this time she developed and maintained several friendships throughout the country with who she was in continual communication. A positive personality was her trait which persevered during ongoing health issues she developed in the 90's. She found peace in the Erie area by forming many friendships and integrating into the community. In Erie she was a member of St. Peter's Lutheran Church and the Moose Club where she avidly participated in Karaoke. Additionally she enjoyed the beautiful sunsets over the lake in the evenings; while having to endure the brutal winters and heavy snowfalls of the area.
